SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that Sri D. Subbaiya, Deputy Inspector of Schools, Kolar District has in anticipation of sanction required by marginal a piece of waste land in the Kolar Taluk. The rules relating to the acquisition of land by Government servants are contained in the "Rules under the Mysore Land Revenue Code," but they seem to apply only to officers in the Revenue Department. I beg to draw attention to Government servants in the Education Department should also obtain permission to acquire land under the same rules. I desire to have the question settled as applications are occasionally received by me from the officers serving in the department.
